CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2018

J.P. Morgan Chase Bank Berhad (“the Bank”) is committed to uphold good corporate governance practices in conformity with Bank Negara Malaysia (“BNM”) Policy Document on Corporate Governance which was effective on 3 August 2016.

Governance is a continuing focus at JPMorgan Chase & Co. (“JPMC” or the “Firm”), starting with the JPMC Board of Directors and extending throughout the Firm. The Firm as a whole sets strategy and manages by line of business based on authorities delegated by JPMC and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (“JPMCB”), and supported by global policies and standards that all staff worldwide are typically required to adhere to, subject to compliance with applicable legal and regulatory standards within each jurisdiction. The activities within the JPMorgan Chase Bank branches and other bank and non-bank subsidiaries are governed in this way in each of the regions in which the Firm operates.

In addition to the above, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of the Bank also observes JPMC’s Global Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct sets forth guiding principles and rules of behaviour by which the Bank conducts its daily business with its customers, vendors, shareholders and with its employees. The Code of Conduct applies to all employees and Directors who are required to annually affirm that they are in compliance with it.

INTERNAL CONTROL FRAMEWORK

The Board of Directors of the Bank is responsible for the Bank's internal control framework for risk management and internal control.

The Bank's internal control framework consists of risk management policies and internal control procedures appropriately embedded in the Bank's business processes and are established in accordance with the nature and extent of the existing and emerging principal risks faced by the Bank. It is also intended to reflect the Bank's sound business practice in pursuing its objectives.

The management of the Bank assists the Board in identifying, evaluating, communicating, escalating and managing principal risks and reviewing the robustness and effectiveness of the risk management policies and internal control procedures. In view of the inherent limitations associated with any internal controls framework, the risk management policies and internal control procedures can only provide reasonable but not absolute assurance of effectiveness against material misstatement, errors, losses or fraud.

The management of the Bank continuously conducts assessments and business monitoring initiatives including business initiated reviews on their key processes, procedures and controls. Key gaps or control weaknesses identified would have corrective actions which are documented, escalated to the management and tracked for closure.

Location Management Committee, Risk/Asset & Liability Committee and Location Operating Committee are key governance committees set up by the Bank as part of the monitoring function to ensure effective management and supervision in accordance with the respective committees' terms of reference.

In order to preserve a strong ethical culture, the Bank has also adopted the JPMC firm-wide Code of Conduct that embeds the values of integrity, fairness and accountability in all that we do.

The Code of Conduct represents the Bank's commitment to operate with the highest level of integrity and ethical conduct. As part of the Conduct, retaliatory actions against any individual for raising legitimate concerns or questions regarding ethical matters, or for reporting suspected violations are prohibited.

Ethics hotlines are made available to all employees who wish to report/voice any concerns on any suspected violations of the law, regulations as well as any actions that do not live up to the Firm's standards of ethical conduct.

REMUNERATION

Remuneration Policy & Practice

The Bank's well established compensation philosophy provides guiding principles that drive compensation-related decision-making across all levels of the Firm. We strive to clearly communicate our compensation philosophy to promote Firmwide fairness and consistency. We believe the effectiveness of our compensation program is dependent upon the alignment of sound pay-for-performance practices with our compensation philosophy.

OUR COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY
✓ Principles-based compensation philosophy Provides guiding principles that drive compensation-related decision-making across all levels of the Firm	✓ Robust anti-hedging/anti-pledging provisions Strict prohibition on hedging and pledging of unvested awards and shares owned outright
✓ Pay at risk Operating Committee member compensation is mostly "at-risk" and contingent on the achievement of performance goals that are integrally linked to shareholder value and safety and soundness	✓ Strong clawback provisions Comprehensive recovery provisions enable us to cancel or reduce unvested awards and require repayment of previously paid compensation, if appropriate
✓ Majority of variable pay is in deferred equity Operating Committee member variable compensation is mostly deferred in the form of PSUs and RSUs that vest over three years	✓ Competitive benchmarking To make informed decisions on pay levels and pay practices, we benchmark ourselves against relevant market data
✓ Risk, controls and conduct impacts pay In making pay decisions, we consider material risk, controls and conduct issues and make adjustments to compensation, when appropriate	✓ Responsible use of equity We manage our equity program responsibly, using less than 1% of weighted average diluted shares in 2018 for employee compensation
✓ Strong share holding requirements Operating Committee members are required to retain significant portions of net shares received from awards to increase ownership over the long-term	✓ Robust shareholder engagement Each year we provide the Board with feedback from our shareholders on a variety of topics, including our compensation programs and practices

SOUND GOVERNANCE AVOIDS POOR PAY PRACTICES
✗ No golden parachute agreements We do not provide additional payments or benefits as a result of a change-in-control event	✗ No guaranteed bonuses We do not provide guaranteed bonuses, except for select individuals at hire
✗ No special severance We do not provide special severance. All employees, including Operating Committee members, participate at the same level of severance, based on years of service, capped at 52 weeks up to a maximum credited salary	✗ No special executive benefits <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ No private club dues or tax gross-ups for benefits ▪ No 401(k) Savings Plan matching contribution ▪ No special health or medical benefits ▪ No special pension credits

The Compensation for independent control function employees, including Risk, Compliance and Audit, is ultimately determined by the Functions. To hold individuals responsible for taking risks inconsistent with the Bank's risk appetite and to discourage future imprudent behaviour, the Bank has policies and procedures that enable it to take prompt and proportionate actions with respect to accountable individuals, including:

1. Reduce or altogether eliminate annual incentive compensation;
2. Cancel unvested awards (in full or in part);
3. Clawback/Recover previously paid compensation (cash and/or equity);
4. Demotion, negative performance rating or other appropriate employment actions;
5. Termination of employment

The precise actions we take with respect to accountable individuals are based on the relevant circumstances, including the nature of their involvement, the magnitude of the event and the impact on the Bank.

CATEGORY	TRIGGER	AWARD TYPE
		VESTED	UNVESTED
Restatement	▪ In the event of a material restatement of the Firm's financial results for the relevant period	✓	✓
	▪ This provision also applies to cash incentives

Measurement of Performance

In determining compensation, the Bank uses a balanced discretionary approach to assess performance against four broad categories:

1. Business Results
2. Risk, Controls & Conduct
3. Client/Customer/Stakeholder
4. Teamwork and Leadership

These performance categories consider short-, medium- and long-term goals that drive sustained shareholder value, while accounting for risk, controls and conduct objectives.

To promote a proper pay-for-performance alignment, the Bank does not assign relative weightings to the above categories.
